About A fasce orizzontali vase by Fulvio Bianconi – Venini Murano

Large green blown glass bottle vase decorated with two hot applied red bands. The collar consists of a layer of translucent red glass which is itself different from the glass used for the body of the vase which have a white interior. Referenced in the Venini archives under the reference 4315, the model was designed in 1950, the year in which it was exhibited at the 25th Venice Biennale. (It was also exhibited during the 26th Biennale in 1952). The example we offer is in very good condition and is signed with the acid stamp on three lines “venini murano italia”.
