About Brooch by Line Vautrin

Black Talosel Brooch Inlaid with Gilt Mirror Fragments by Line Vautrin. Square brooch in black talosel, structured by a rigorously composed geometric relief. The surface is animated by a network of small, slightly raised rectangular elements arranged in a quasi-labyrinthine pattern, creating a highly rhythmic interplay of solids and voids. The finely striated edges emphasize the worked character of the object and attest to a carefully executed craftsmanship.
