About Chandra vase by Roberto Caddeo – Barovier e Toso

Somewhere between a vase and a contemporary glass sculpture, “Chandra” was imagined by Roberto Caddeo for Barovier and Toso in 1995. Chandra is part of a series of pieces designed by Roberto Caddeo for Barovier which included four “oddities”; a green arum-shaped vase with red interior, this Chandra vase, a fish-shaped vase,... You will find an illustration of the original brochure at the end of the photo gallery. The structure of the vase is made of mouth-blown Murano glass. The colours are sulphur-yellow and burgundy with two holes drilled on either side of the element. The vase rests on a black glass base. The vase is signed with the diamond point on three lines “Barovier e Toso Murano”.
