About Talosel Necklace by Line Vautrin

Talosel Necklace by Line Vautrin (1913–1997), France, circa 1960. This distinctive Talosel necklace is composed of a continuous succession of individually linked elements, each inset on both sides with golden mirrors. The irregular, richly textured Talosel surrounds the luminous mirrored surfaces, creating a striking contrast between texture and reflection. Characteristic of Line Vautrin's inventive jewelry designs, the necklace beautifully combines the sculptural quality of Talosel with the warm, shimmering reflections of golden mirrors.
