About Marguerite by Line Vautrin

“Marguerite” by Line Vautrin, Light beige Talosel mirror inlaid with silver grey mirrors Line Vautrin was inspired by the daisy flower (Marguerite in French) to imagine this elegant mirror made up of a row of 60 petals shaped alternately forwards and backwards. The central convex witch is surrounded by a wide ring lined with mirrors. A very nice work of scarification to the crown is reflected in the witch. On the reverse, the structure is entirely scarified with “tingling”, proof of a very old mirror.
