About Necklace by Line Vautrin

Convertible long Talosel necklace inlaid with mirror fragments by Line Vautrin. Rare convertible long necklace composed of a continuous succession of circular talosel elements (72 in total). Each disc displays subtle chromatic variations—ivory, honey, amber brown, and iridescent, pearly reflections—creating an overall visual vibration of great refinement. By virtue of its length, this piece offers considerable versatility in wear: it may be worn as a long sautoir, or wrapped twice or three times around the neck, adapting to gesture and use, at times emphasizing the body's verticality, at others embracing the volume of the neck.
