About Porcelain wall decoration by Tapio Wirkkala – Yearly limited edition 1971 – Rosenthal

This porcelain wall decoration designed by Tapio Wirkkala is composed of inverted half bubbles on a gilded paint top surface, it is a lunar and poetic vision that Tapio Wirkkala offered to the manufacturer Rosenthal Studio in 1971. This work is the result of an annual collaboration between Rosenthal and a renowned artist or designator. Produced in a limited edition of 3000 pieces, in perfect condition and accompanied by its original box, this is the number “2131”. This decoration has an original tether hook at the back.
