About Si tous les gars du monde by Line Vautrin

“Si tous les gars du monde” by Line Vautrin, gilt bronze brooch representing a round of fourteen children dressed in long flowing garments. The piece is inspired by La Ronde (1897), a poem by Paul Fort (1872–1960). Each child’s head bears a letter, which together form the title of the jewel, creating a delicate interplay between sculpture, poetry and symbolism.
